Through the persistent efforts of Mr. W. L. Van Horn, residents of Flagstaff can now secure round trip tickets to Kansas City, St. Louis, Los Angeles and San Francisco, at reduced rates, and they can be secured from the agent of the A. & P. here, which will obviate the necessity of sending to Albuquerque. The round trip rate from Flagstaff to Los Angeles (first class) will be $50 and to San Francisco $60. These tickets will be limited good going thirty days from date of sale, and good coming any time within six months from date of sale. Heretofore it has been necessary to send to Albuquerque for return tickets to any of the above named cities, and then the rates were very much higher.

Work has been commenced on the new M. E. church at Williams, two carloads of lumber have been shipped from this place during the week and a number of carpenters have left to begin operations.

A grand concert will be given by Prof. Wood, the California blind violinist, sentimental and serio-comic vocalist and guitarist, at Powell's hall on Saturday, June 6, on which occasion will be presented a select program, consisting of violin solos and guitar solos, songs and vocal medleys. The professor will be assisted by Miss M. A. Asbill, of Payson, Ariz., a vocalist of renown, and by local talent. This will be a rare treat to the citizens of Flagstaff, and it is to be hoped there will be a large attendance. Admission 50 and 75 cents. Front seats will be reserved for ladies and their escorts.

THE ODD FELLOWS' BALL
A Gay Scene at Powell's Hall.

On Tuesday evening last, Flagstaff Lodge, No. 11, I. O. O. F., gave a grand ball at Powell's hall, in commemoration of the seventy-second anniversary of the foundation of the order.

About 9 o'clock the guests began to gather in large numbers, and at 9:30 more than sixty couples entered the grand ball, which was led by Miss Ella Hawks and Phil Brannen, and when the first quadrille was called twenty-five additional couples swelled the already large crowd of merry dancers. The scene was a charming one, the elegant toilets of the young ladies adding much to the brilliancy of the affair, but space will not permit a description of such. Many handsome bouquets of flowers were worn by the ladies. It was, without doubt, the most pleasing and successful affair of the kind ever witnessed in Flagstaff. Good music was furnished by the Coconino orchestra, and many pretty dances were indulged in, each and every one appearing to lay aside the duties and cares of every day life for the time being, and entirely giving themselves up to the delightful pleasure of dancing. At midnight about one hundred couples repaired to the Bank Hotel, where Miss Host Coulter served a most sumptuous repast. The dining hall was profusely decorated with roses, caryophylls, dahlias, hollyhocks and cypresses. After supper had been partaken of dancing was again resumed, and continued until glimmers of dawn made their appearance on the eastern horizon, reminding the merry-makers that another day was upon them.

Numerous visitors were observed with the gay throng, among whom were the following:

Holbrook—D. M. Pickett and wife; Phil Brannen.

Williams—W. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Nellis, and Miss A. Eagon.

Winslow—R. L. Jones, F. Mills, Joseph Corrigan, Richard Nichols, Charles McCammon, Charles Huston, C. Hyde and Charles Hawkins.

Prescott—Miss Emma Spaulding, San Francisco—Wm. Moore.

Among those present from our own town were the following:

Misses Tillie and Lizzie Hoffman, Worthington, Switzer, Van Norman, Addie and Lillian Grace, Stella and Eddie Yancey, Jones, Davis, Alvord, Beal, Lockwood, Gibson, Lovell, Ella and Annie Hawks, Etta and Della Powell, Coconino, Ackbaum, Sullivan, Mollie, Eliza and Retta Beasley, Newman, Dutton, Doney Hochdler and Verch.

Messrs. Alford, W. C. Bayless, C. R. Bayless, Van Norman, Thomas, Riordan, Dr. Cornish, A. T. Cornish, Nellis, DeCloss, Beasley, Vail, Francis, Neal, Cameron, Grace, and Brown.

Messrs. Sisson, Gregg, Norris, Brown, Dr. Cornish, H. Buck, James Black, Bain Black, Wm. McIntyre, Hugh Campbell, B. F. Norris, A. S. Alvord, E. E. Ellinwood, DeCloss, Layton, Ralph Cameron, G. H. Clark, J. W. Francis, C. L. Clark, Daggs, Gosney, Dan Francis, George Campbell, Folger, Wright, Bell, Ferguson, Vail, W. C. Bayless, Morgan, Bray, Charles Bayless, Joseph Brannen, W. D. Tinker, A. K. Lee, Otto Jones, Cobel, Lockett, A. T. Cornish, Kisslingbury, Grace, Ross, Diamonds Matt Black, Moffat, Freidin, Willard, Berry, Lewis, Mooney, Sanchez, Bert Cameron, Frye, and many others whose names could not be ascertained.

Among those prominent were Dr. Booth, of the Needles Eye.

Among those from a distance were Mr. J. Lyons and wife, of St. Louis, Mo.

The committees performed their various offices with efficiency, and much credit is due them for the successful manner in which they carried out the program. It may be added that Flagstaff lodge has won many friends by their courteous treatment of all who were fortunate enough to be in attendance last Tuesday evening, besides adding a handsome sum to the treasury.

PRIVATE RECEPTION

Tendered Mrs. Esteb at the Bank Hotel.

On Tuesday last Mrs. James H. Esteb returned home from Boston, her former home, where she has been visiting for some time, and on Thursday evening a reception was given in her honor at the Bank Hotel. In the parlors many guests were assembled, and made short speeches extending to Mrs. Esteb a very hearty welcome upon her safe arrival home again. A delicious supper was served in the spacious dining room, covers being laid for sixty. The tables were exquisitely embellished with the most beautiful flowers. Among the invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark, Mr. Mrs. Doe, Mr. and Mrs. Jones Mr. and Mrs. Doyle and Mrs. Francis, G. A. Bray and wife, H. Lockett, Mrs. Seal, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Brannen, Rev. Norton, R. H. Cameron, W. G. Stewart, F. G. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. J. Vories, W. L. Van Horn, R. Friedland, J. Lockett, T. H. Brown, P. Daggs, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gile, J. Esteb.

REMEMBERED.

Large Numbers Participate in Memorial Services.

Everyone who took part in the ceremonies of decorating the graves of the soldiers on Saturday last were very highly pleased with the result of their efforts, for they were successful beyond any anticipation. Precisely at 10:30 o'clock the procession formed at Grand Army hall, and headed by the Coconino band proceeded to Powell's hall, where the services were commenced by the singing of "America" by all present, after which Rev. Norton led in prayer. Five members each from the Woman's Relief Corps, G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans joined in responsive readings which were very appropriate for such an occasion. Forty-two young ladies then recited as many verses, each of which alluded to the various states. Mr. J. E. Jones of the Democrat and Mr. Van Horn delivered addresses. The procession again fell into line and, headed by the band, playing a dirge, proceeded in the following order to the cemetery.

COCONINO BAND
GODDESSE OF LIBERTY
(Mrs. J. E. Palmer)
GRAND ARMY REPUBLIC
SCHOOL CHILDREN
COMPANY "C," 1st REGIMENT
CITIZENS CARRIAGES

After arriving at the cemetery the memorial services were conducted by Comrades Burns, Smith and Hoxworth, after which the Rev. Norton pronounced the benediction. A squad of six members of Company "C," First Regiment, N. G. A. fired a salute of three rounds. The graves were then profusely decorated with beautiful flowers, which had been sent from Los Angeles for this purpose.

Again the line of March was taken up, and after arriving at headquarters, disbanding, with the exception of the Grand Army comrades who proceeded to decorate the grave of Captain Lockwood which lies a little south of the town.

CARD OF THANKS.

At a regular meeting of Ransom Post, G. A. R., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, and the two Flagstaff papers were requested to publish the same.

First.—That we tender our sincere thanks to our editors for favors shown to the G. A. R. boys.

Second.—To the ladies, citizens and children for their kind assistance.

Third.—To E. S. Wilcox for the use of his new and fine bus for the purpose of conveying the goddess of liberty and flower girls to the cemetery.

Fourth.—To Mr. Powell for the use of his commodious hall.

Fifth.—To the citizens and business men for closing their places of business during the parade.

Sixth.—To the Coconino band boys. You did well and we are proud of you. It made us think of old times to march behind your music and the citizens of Coconino county stand by you.

Seventh.—To the Coconino Rifle company. Again we looked upon the young manly forms of this company and our thoughts revert to the time when we first went forth in '61 to serve Uncle Sam. Captain, to you and your company we cannot express our thanks too highly. With such men as you command we feel safe.

Eighth.—To the family of Colonel Davidson, formerly of this town, now of Los Angeles, for two boxes of flowers.

Ninth.—To the ladies of John A. Logan Woman's Relief Corps, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Tenth.—To Stanton Woman's Relief Corps, Los Angeles, Cal.

Eleventh.—To Frank Bartlett Woman's Relief Corps, Los Angeles, Cal.

Twelfth.—To Mrs. Frank Daggs, of Flagstaff, now visiting Los Angeles.

Thirteenth.—To the unknown sender of a fine box of flowers.

By a unanimous vote of Ransom Post, we heartily thank all above for flowers and favors. May God bless you all. [Signed]
